THE PRESS-ENTERPRISE NAMES CORONA-NORCO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT A WINNER OF THE INLAND EMPIRE 2016 TOP WORKPLACES AWARD

NORCO, CA November 29, 2016 –The Corona-Norco Unified School District has been named as one of the best places to work in the Inland Empire by the Press-Enterprise. Consideration for the 2016 Top Workplaces award was based on results from an employee survey.

“Being named a Top Workplace is a wonderful testament to our outstanding employees,” said Dr. Lin, Superintendent, “CNUSD is a special place to work because of the quality people that work here. We are honored to receive this award, and will strive for continuous improvement to ensure that we are a desirable place to work today and for generations to come.”

The evaluation for the Top Workplaces program is based upon feedback from an employee survey. The survey is administered by WorkplaceDynamics, LLC, a leading research firm that specializes in organizational health and workplace improvement. Several aspects of workplace culture were measured, such as, alignment, execution and connection. The annual top workplaces list is broken down by size because smaller employers tend to score higher than midsize employers, and midsize employers tend to score higher than large employers.

“The Top Workplaces award is not a popularity contest. And oftentimes, people assume it’s all about fancy perks and benefits.” says Doug Claffey, CEO of WorkplaceDynamics. “But to be a Top Workplace, organizations must meet our strict standards for organizational health. And who better to ask about work life than the people who live the culture every day—the employees. Time and time again, our research has proven that what’s most important to them is a strong belief in where the organization is headed, how it’s going to get there, and the feeling that everyone is in it together.”

CNUSD will receive the award Thursday, December 1 during a Top Workplaces ceremony.
