2019 California Building Code

Plan Check:

Section 105.3.2 notes: "An application for a permit for any proposed work shall be deemed to have been abandoned 180 days after the date of filing unless such application has been pursued in good faith or a permit has been issued; except that the building official is authorized to grant one extension at a time for additional periods not exceeding 180 days each. The extension shall be requested in writing and justifiable cause demonstrated."

Permit:

Section 105.5 notes: "Every permit issued shall become invalid unless the work on the site authorized by such permit is commenced within 365 days after its issuance, or if the work authorized on the site by such permit is suspended or abandoned for a period of 180 days after the time the work is commenced. The building official is authorized to grant, in writing, one extension of time, for periods, not more than 180 days each. The extension shall be in writing and justifiable cause demonstrated."
