Mayor Christian Dinco's Holiday Message

Merry Christmas and happy holidays Eastvale!

As I reflect on the year, I am proud to say that 2023 was a year of growth and many new additions to our city. New businesses, new families, new City staff, and new civic events. I extend my thanks to those who have played pivotal roles in making 2023 a resounding success.

First and foremost, I express my appreciation to our esteemed military, and our dedicated law enforcement, fire, and paramedic personnel. The fact that so many active-duty military members, veterans, and public safety personnel call Eastvale home is a source of immense pride for our city.

A special thanks is also owed to our vibrant business community, whose unwavering dedication has served our residents and visitors throughout the year. Whether a new establishment or a longstanding business, your contributions have played a vital role in shaping the character of our community.

To the heart of Eastvale – our residents – I extend my gratitude. I am honored to lead us into another year of growth and prosperity and encourage you to reach out to the city should you need anything from us.

My final thanks are reserved for my colleagues on the Eastvale City Council, our City Manager, and the entire city team. Mayor Pro Tem Mike McMinn, Councilmember Jocelyn Yow, Councilmember Clint Lorimore, and Councilmember Todd Rigby, it is my honor to work alongside you. Mark Orme, thank you for your dedicated leadership to our city team, and your commitment to our community. And finally, to our city employees in every department, thank you for helping execute the vision set before you.

As we look ahead to 2024, exciting plans are in place for Eastvale's continued progress and prosperity. Together, we will build upon the foundation of our shared accomplishments, steering towards an even brighter future for our city.

From my family to yours, and on behalf of the entire Eastvale City Council, I wish you a Merry Christmas and joyous holiday season filled with love, peace, and happiness. May you have a blessed new year.
